The Daily Sentinel.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

We clip the following from the La Crosse Democrat of the 16th instant and heartily endorse every line and word. The truth of it's charges is apparent to every one who does not wilfully close his eyes to indisputable and glaring facts. Strong as the language of the article may seem, it fails in portraying the acme of fiendishness and villainy which the Radical party has reached in this State of ours:

RADICAL PURITY!

There are a few individuals belonging to the Radical party, who have voted and labored with that institution of self-convicted bribery, perjury, thievery, and political rottenness, who dare to raise their shameless faces from out the cess pools in which they thrive and breed, and accuse Democratic papers of "low flings," because they call persons and sections by their right names, and do not beat around the bush for fear or favor. These are the brutes who clap their mangy paws and dance in wild delight when a defenseless Southern man is killed, or a white girl is raped by a Congo, whose only virtues are a sable skin and a wooly head. These are the same curs who saved their worthless pelts during the late war, by sending substitutes, or in some other way avoiding the cause of near a million deaths. These are the vile creatures who rejoice to see a man hung for a political opinion, and would place the negro on an equality with their wives and daughters, which would not be so much out of the way, either, if it did not go further, and thus effect other men and their wives and children.

When we denounce, in unmeasured terms, the false position of the Radical party, call them "low flings," if you choose. A "low fling" it is, of a truth, when it hits such as you. A sportsman loads his piece for the game he hunts, and when one of our shots causes a squeal in the direction in which we aimed, we are probably right in our conclusion that somebody is hit. We are hunting most of the time, and the squeals that emanate from the Radical rat holes strengthens our belief that we are having good success. We never pick up our game, for it isn't worth it.

We do not wonder at the squirms and hops of these Radical worthies. It is hard on them to have so many of their number turning States evidence, who also deal in "low flings," which cut to the quick when they tell of moneys stolen, of briberies paid, of law defied, of treason fostered, of patriotism crippled, of a Constitution destroyed, and a country ruined.

"Low fling" is an original name for Truth, invented by Radicalism, and to hurl it at them soils their purity!

GEN. GRANT'S FAMILY AT WEST POINT, N. Y.

Mrs. Grant has kept herself within doors pretty much ever since she has been here, but her appearance in one of the examination rooms this morning enables me to say that she wore a black silk walking-suit, with lavender gloves, and a black lace bonnet with four, and I cannot swear that there were not even five, red roses in it. Miss Grant, who is a growing girl of twelve, perhaps, wore a black mantilla and a muslin dress; and young Jesse, who is a bullet-headed boy of nine or ten, was enclosed in the black roundabout and trowsers appropriate to his tender years. These are all the President's family, I believe, except another boy who is at school in Massachusetts somewhere, and his first born, Frederick D. (supposed to be named after the President's well-known poor relation and doorkeeper, Dent,) who is just completing the second year of his probation here.

Hereditary genius has not broken out in that youth, by the-by, so as to occasion any alarm about the combustion by him of the adjacent Hudson. When you ask the officers about him they shake their heads and laugh, or look grave, according to their way of thinking. Not that he is incurably stupid, either; but it is possible he relies too much upon his father's influence to shield him from the consequences of any errors into which he may fall, and I have seen enough of the Point to be assured that that will not do. Last year he was a little more than half way down in mathematics, and at the very bottom in French. These are the only studies reported in the register. The last report shows the same standing.—Young Grant is No. 8 (the lowest number) in the fifth (the lowest section) in French, and No. 4, (the middle number) in the third (the middle section) in mathematics. In that branch of science known at West Point as "Demerits," however, his prominence is startling. Last year he was marked 175, 25 below the limit at which forbearance ceases in the official mind to be a virtue, and 75 beyond the point attained by any other member of the class. This year it is not quite so bad for three of his classmates have managed to misconduct themselves beyond him.

THE MODEL REPUBLIC ABROAD.

The fate of the Model Republic is appreciated in Europe, and, from an example to be imitated, has become a warning to deter. In the great debate in the Spanish Cortes on the form of constitution to be adopted, after a foolish word spouter had exhausted himself in expatiating on the glories of the great Republic, another member (Senor Rosas) replied:

He (Senor Rosas) was very severe with the Republic of the United States. He said half of it was outside the law. All the States of the South were held under the sword of military government. Individual rights were all confounded. There was no liberty. It was dictation—sword dictation. The government of the half of the States had characters of iniquitous tyranny, for the interests of the conquered countries were sacrificed to the egotism of the North. They enslaved the whites to give liberty to the blacks. This slavery would be prolonged years and years, for the Federal legality and the autonomy of the States were completely abolished. Was that the sort of constitution they wished to give their country? (No, no, and great applause.)

COLIC IN HORSES.—Not long since, while spending the night with a friend in a neighboring county, we were aroused from our slumbers with the unwelcome intelligence that our horse was dying. Upon repairing to the stable we believed the report but too true. The poor beast was in perfect agony, rolling, kicking, vainly trying to get on his feet, and covered with perspiration. At times giving signs of botts, but the leading symptoms were of colic. So great were the struggles of the horse that some time elapsed before he could be controlled sufficiently to administer anything. Finally we succeeded in getting a table-spoonful of Soda (such as we use for bread,) into his mouth. In less than three minutes he was better, got up and walked out of the stable, and a fine evacuation was produced. The paroxysms returning, but with less violence, we drenched him with the following, which Capt. F. informed us he had never known to fail to cure:

½lb (ordinary) ping tobacco, 4 pods red pepper, 2 ounces ley soap, 1 pint hen manure; put in sufficient water, (say 5 pints,) to make a good drench, boil, say 5 minutes, and strain through cloth. There should be one quart of the decoction when drained off. Add as much assafœtida as will dissolve well. Give when sufficiently cool not to burn the horse.

We administered the soda, also, afterwards, in a small quantity. In less than 20 minutes the horse was feeding. The cure was so wonderful that we give all the particulars hoping that others may derive benefit from our experience. We are inclined to the opinion that if people would treat more for colic and less for grubs, fewer horses would die.—Central Georgian.

THE Ætna is the LEADING LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY in North Carolina.
Largest amount of Losses to Widows and Orphans!
The Largest Revenue to the States. And has by far the largest number when compared with 58 Companies reported officially by the Commissioners of New York and Massachusetts it will be seen that the Ætna ranks as one of the first Companies of the Continent. But two of the fifty-eight Companies permitted to do business in New York and Massachusetts had so large an income for the year 1868; but two had so large a number of Policies in force, but one among all those incorporated under the laws of the State of New York had so small a per centage of Expense to Income during the year 1868.

Its expenses are lower than most Companies', and consequently its ability to make and pay liberal dividends to the insured is greater than that of most other Companies. It is one of the great Companies of the land in Income, in Assets, in Number of Policies, in Amount Insured, in Solidity and Strength, in Soundness, Cheapness, Promptness, and Success. Persons contemplating this mode of investment in the future as in the past would do well to examine the claims of all and take a policy accordingly.

SPARKLING CATAWBA SPRINGS,

CATAWBA COUNTY, N. C.

THIS CELEBRATED WATERING PLACE, formerly called the North Carolina White Sulphur Springs, will be open for visitors on Tuesday, the first day of June next.
Being situated in the northwestern part of the State in a country remarkable for the beauty and healthfulness—these, together with the virtue of the waters, make it one of the most desirable watering places to be found.
The MINERAL WATERS of these Springs are the White and Blue Sulphur and Chalybeate or Iron, and they possess all the finest qualities of these waters, and are sovereign remedies for all diseases of the liver, bowels, stomach and kidneys, eruptions of the skin, scrofula, weakness, debility dyspepsia, rheumatism, &c.
The proprietor having spent a large amount in additional buildings and improvements generally, these Springs are now in a fine condition, rooms large and pleasant, and good cottages containing from two to six rooms each, well arranged for either large or small families.
Good TEN PIN ALLEYS, BILLIARD TABLES and other amusements.
FINE BATH HOUSES, for Pool, Plunge or Shower Bath, Sulphur Bath, Hot or Cold.

A GOOD BAND OF MUSIC

Will be at the Springs the entire season, and a good Physician permanently located for the benefit of invalids, who will have every attention.
Having secured the services of Mr. J. N. CARR, of Virginia, who has had much experience and stands high as a Hotel keeper, visitors may rest assured that my table will be supplied with the best the market can afford, and everything done that will add to their pleasure and comfort.
The cars on the Western North Carolina Rail Road will leave Salisbury for Hickory Station, the Springs' depot, every morning, (Sundays excepted,) in connection with the North Carolina Railroad, avoiding stoppage or delay at Salisbury, and arrive at Hickory Station in time for breakfast, where good hacks will be in readiness to take passengers over a beautiful, well-shaded road to the Springs—a distance of six miles.
As an inducement for families and parties to spend two months or more, I have concluded to put board down at the following low rates:

BOARD:

For one single month,	$50 00
For two or more months, $40 per month, or at that rate.

ROBERT SOUTTER,

OF GRANVILLE COUNTY,

realizing the importance of spreading the growth of Wheat in this County; and the farmers, knowing so well the absolute necessity of supplying themselves at an early period with "Seed Wheat" of the finest quality, ready to plant in the Fall, the undersigned takes this early method of inviting applications from farmers, for what they may require to plant next Fall, of the very "Select Seed Wheat" which he expects to deliver at moderate prices, from the crop growing now at his "Oakland Farm" near Townsville, in this County.
This Wheat was planted last Fall, with Guano, of seed selected in Baltimore with great care by my predecessor, Mr. Chas. R. K. Taylor, who paid $3,25 for it there. It has had the advantage of a heavy top-dressing in Spring of Chicago bone Fertilizer, and is now very promising.
Like the good Sorghum Seed which I have offered to the farmers of Granville, I hope the orders for my "Seed Wheat" may be equally attractive, to absorb all that I can expect to spare of it.
Address me at Kittrell's Springs, or Mr. Thos. W. Taylor, at Oakland Farm.

THE SENTINEL.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

TUESDAY, JUNE 22, 1869.

"The only allegation of fact on which this "solemn protest" rests, is that, "the Judges, singly or en masse, did rush into the mad contest of politics, under the excitement of drums and flags." Is this allegation of fact true, or is it false? There is no pretence that it is true."

Such is the opinion of Chief Justice Pearson in the case of the Bench against the Bar, for contempt. We say it is true in letter and in spirit, and here is the proof of it.

In the North Carolina Standard of July 1st, 1868, the following passage occurs, in an article in regard to the Sentinel: "That paper (the Sentinel)" dislikes Judge Dick, because of his ardent devotion to the true principles of the Government, and because he exerted himself ON THE STUMP, as a Republican, to secure the adoption of the new Constitution."

On the 19th of August the Standard contained the celebrated letter of the Chief Justice, himself, looked upon, and no doubt intended, as an electioneering document, and was used as such. Here is the evidence of it:

In an editorial of the same date, the Standard says, "it is gratifying to know that the entire Supreme Court will go with the Chief Justice for Grant and Colfax." "It is gratifying to believe every single District Judge in the State will support the same ticket." "Will not the people listen to the voice of their Judges."

Further. In the Standard of the 26th. of August, occurs this paragraph:

"JUDGE PEARSON'S LETTER.—A friend writing from the Western part of the State says, 'I enclose you $10, for which you will please send me 1,000 copies of Judge Pearson's letter. I wish to spread it over this district. I think it is one of the best campaign documents out, and should be generally circulated throughout the State."

These extracts will serve to show that the letter of the Chief Justice was looked upon, by the party, as a campaign document, and that the Standard enumerated the Judges among the active partizans of the Radical party.

We are informed by an editorial paragraph in the Standard of the 19th of August, that the Republican State Executive Committee had resolved to have a grand ratification mass meeting in the city of Raleigh on the 16th of September. The character of the meeting is plainly marked by the rallying cry of that paper. The order is issued for the U. L.'s and H. O. A.'s to call meetings, prepare their flags and badges, and get ready to come up by hundreds and thousands, prepared to camp out. There was to be a free barbecue, and volunteer companies were invited to come organized, uniformed or not uniformed. "Make ready, friends, to come up," says the Standard. "rouse for action, clear the decks," &c., &c. No one could possibly mistake the character of this meeting; it was a grand political jubilee.

Preparatory to this grand rally, the State Executive Committee met and appointed sub-Committees to attend to all the arrangements. These sub Committees are announced in the Standard, of the 26th. of August. Figuring on these Committees we find the following:

A. W. Tourgee on the Committee on Railroad transportation.

Officers of the Day.—Hon. E. G. Reade, President; Judges W. B. Rodman, Thomas Settle, R. P. Dick, and others, Vice Presidents.

The name of Judge A. W. Tourgee occurs also on the general Committee of Arrangements.

In the same number of the Standard, it is announced, again, that Judge Pearson's letter, the address of Gov. Reade on the part of the Judiciary, at the inauguration, Gen. Grant's letter and Gen. Blair's letter, are all printed in one pamphlet for distribution as campaign documents, and persons are requested to send in their orders for copies.

Of this address of Judge Reade at the inauguration, we need not speak. Everybody who heard it knows it was political and partizan in its character. It could not have been otherwise, at such a time and upon such an occasion.

Of the incidents of the grand ratification meeting of the 16th of September and the extent to which the Judges who had been appointed, participated in its action, we are unable to say, the copies of the Standard of the 23rd and 30th of September, which contained an account of the proceedings of that day, having disappeared from the file in the State Library, or having never reached there.

As an incident showing the political animus of the Judges of the State, during that period, we give the following extract from the Standard of the 7th of October, over the signature of Judge Thomas. It seems the Journal of Commerce, of Newbern, had published something the Judge thought the reverse of complimentary, whereupon he publishes a card in the Standard over his own proper signature, in which occurs this paragraph:

"I denounce the statement that I ever "pursued a truckling or a degrading course" as false, and the speaker or writer of the thought a liar."

The matter in dispute arose out of the political contest then going on, and people will have their opinion as to how far such language comports with Judicial dignity.

We have not alluded to a moiety of the instances in which members of the State Judiciary were actively connected with the political wranglings between the period of the election of the Judges and the publishing of the memorable Protest, but we have given enough, we think, to show that there is some ground of "pretence" that "the Judges, singly or en masse, did rush into the mad contest of politics, under the excitement of drums and flags," is true.

We might reiterate the fact that Judge Dick holted the League nomination of Windy Billy for Congress, and openly advocated the claims of Tourgee, then on the riding of his circuit as Judge of the Superior Court; and the fact of Tourgee adjourning his Court and taking the stump in advocacy of his own claims. We might rehearse the history of Tourgee's fight with Billy on the train, arising out of political squabbling between them; but all this is unnecessary; no man cognizant of current events in the Fall of 1868, can avoid the conclusion, so calmly and truthfully set forth in the Protest and Answer, which, with the Opinion, will descend to posterity as matters of history of the present disjointed times.

THE STANDARD AND THE LAWYERS.

The Standard as usual makes itself ridiculous and contemptible by its unmanly flings and false positions in regard to the protesting lawyers. The anxiety and concern attributed to them by that paper, has had no existence except in its own distempered brain. Not one of them has condescended to notice the Standard, if indeed any of them has read its articles.

The mendacity of the Standard, is constitutional—being from its birth unable to tell the truth. Nor has it improved by age, except in utter debasement and want of integrity. Its intimations that the protesting lawyers are the butt of ridicule and condemnation in the State, are without a shadow of foundation. The doctrines of the "protest" are held and advocated by the intelligent and unprejudiced members of the Bar throughout the State. Even those who refused to sign it from prudential considerations, fully endorse the doctrines of the "protest;" they believed the censures therein contained against judicial interference in politics, well founded and well merited, but many of them thought, as the sequel has shown, it would not mend the case,—it would do no good, and why "cast pearls before swine."

The respectable, sober-thinking, and law-loving people of the State universally approve the doctrines of the "protest" and the entire course of the lawyers. The answer of the respondents and of their counsel, is universally regarded as a complete refutation of the positions of the Court.—The sober sense of the people regards the whole matter as beneath the dignity and proprieties which should be observed by a high judicial tribunal, and nothing but a feeling of mortification and regret prevails everywhere that the Court noticed the affair judicially at all. Time and a sober-second thought, will make this feeling universal among all concerned.

Among sound lawyers everywhere, so far as we have been able to learn, but one sentiment prevails, and that is a full endorsement of the doctrines of the protest and of the arguments of the counsel of the respondents. The protesting lawyers do not modify or take back a whit from their first positions. Mr. Moore and the other respondents affirm, that the "protest" was not written or signed in contempt of the Supreme Court of North Carolina or of any other Court,—that the paper is no contempt at all, either in law or in fact. The "protest" did not assail or animadvert upon the official action of any Court or of any body of men officially consituting a Court at that time, but of individuals aspiring to, or candidates for, high judicial positions, and that what the protest said, was not libellebellous, but true to the letter. This is their position, and this position the people of North Carolina will sustain.

From the Philadelphia Age.

A firm and dignified protest against the recent partisan action of the Judges of the Supreme Court, of North Carolina, signed by more than one hundred leading lawyers of the State, has been published in the local papers. It is calmly written, and the signers say, "never before have we seen the Judges of the Supreme Court, singly or en masse, move from that becoming propriety so indispensable to secure the respect of the people, and throwing aside the ermine, rush into the mad contest of politics under the excitement of drums and flags." This humiliating spectacle is denounced "under a sense of a solemn duty."

Upon the publication of this address, Chief Justice Pearson, on ascertaining of the attorneys practising in the Court at Raleigh, who signed this protest, ordered that they be disabled from hereafter practising as counsellors in that Court, unless they shall severally appear on the 15th. day of July and show cause to the contrary. The point of the protest is to mark and emphasize the opinion of the Bar against the Judges for open, active, partisan action in the political canvass, in writing for papers, speaking and presiding at heated political meetings, resulting, as on one occasion, in a personal collision between a Judge and one of his Radical friends. John. M. Read acted in a similar manner during the last political contest in this State, and his course was denounced by the leading attorneys in this State of both political parties, as calculated to lower the standing of the judiciary, and impair the confidence of the public in the Supreme Court of the Commonwealth.—Radicalism has inflicted many stabs upon the welfare of the nation, but none more deadly than when it turned juges into rancorous partisans, and the Bench into a rostrum from which small politicians can dignify their narrow prejudices with the name or judicial decisions.

A case of the ownership of a poor, old horse, worth $75, has been on trial in Buffalo nine years, and is as far from settlement as ever.

NORTH CAROLINA LANDS.

Encouraged by the indefatigable efforts of the North Carolina Land Company, large numbers of Northern citizens, mostly practical farmers, are now visiting this State, to examine our lands and their surroundings. The exhausted condition of many of the cultivated lands of the State, owing to the ruinous systems of farming heretofore in vogue, make them present no very encouraging aspect to the eye of a skilled planter, who comes from a section where agriculture is almost fifty years in advance of the South; hence, it is important that those disposed to sell their lands, should avoid exorbitant prices, and should be prepared to meet the difficulties growing out of our past bad system of farming, which present themselves to the eye of an intelligent planter.

The means of enriching our soils and improving them by improved tillage and management, are so abundant, that the planters of the State who neglect to take advantage of them, will deserve severe censure. This fact should be kept constantly before the eyes of the people and should be frequently presented to those who speak of buying lands.

The natural resources of the Eastern Counties are so great, that, added to the native fertility of the soil in that section, it is capable of being the most productive and richest portion of the world. Marl and muck are everywhere abundant, and the vast profit which might be derived in that section, from converting the vast quantities of fish which are unfit for consumption, and the abundant offal of those caught and packed for market, into fish guano, ought to prompt the people to go into its production.

It strikes us, that one of the chief sources of poverty to the Eastern Counties is the long habit of cultivating Indian corn as the chief market crop, to the neglect of almost everything else. The remarkable adaptation of the rich lands of our Eastern Counties to the cultivation of corn, and the ease with which it is cultivated in that section, is an apology and excuse for their perseverance in it, although it is one of the most exhausting and expensive crops which is made when compared with its product in the markets. The same lands cultivated in a variety of crops embracing every article which can be produced on them would doubtless pay far better, than when cultivated in corn alone. The production of cotton, oats, (wheat, when the soil is suited) rice, potatoes, peas, beans, and other vegetables and fruits, with a proper share of Indian corn, would pay our planters far better than the old method. It is doubtful, in the present condition of labor, whether any one can make the cultivation of land in corn pay, when the land will produce less than eight or ten barrels of corn to the acre. The true policy, therefore, as corn is so essential an ingredient in human and animal consumption that it cannot be abandoned entirely, would be for every planter at once, to set apart annually, ten or twenty acres (according to his means) which shall be made to produce ten barrels of corn to the acre, and cultivate no land in corn which will produce less, for the reason that less than this will not pay for the labor of cultivation and return to the planter the share which his land should claim. The balance of the open land should be cultivated in cotton, small grain, peas, clover, &c. Open lands should never be left unfenced, turned out into commons, and left bare of covering. A Northern planter coming among us, is more discouraged at the immense quantity of old field, turned out land, left bare, than anything else. Badly worn as it may be, it is far cheaper to reclaim it and to keep it fenced, than it is to open new land. A New Jersey farmer remarked to us the other day, that the most discouraging sight he had ever seen in the South, was the immense quantity of land he saw, that had been so badly managed, left out to be grazed to death, or thrown out without covering, as that its vegetable matter seemed to be entirely exhausted. Such lands cannot be readily restored by fertilizers, until a sufficient vegetable covering is restored to them. This can be done by deep ploughing and subsoiling, and put down in peas, oats, &c., to be turned in in the fall, with a coat of lime, or marl, and genuine phosphates. Such lands must never be grazed, till they are thoroughly restored. Deep ploughing and subsoiling are only useful to lands that have a substantial sub soil. If you have lands when under soil is white sand, deep ploughing would only make bad worse, unless the top soil is clay and needs mixture. Usually, however, sandy sub-soils, are worthless.

The foregoing remarks apply to all the lands of the State. The lands however, in the Middle and Western parts of the State, in addition to keeping them fenced and covered, must be protected by hillside ditches and horizontal ploughing.

SUPREME COURT OF NORTH CAROLINA.

The judges of the supreme court of North Carolina are active and virulent politicians, and have been making stump speeches not above the the average in candor, elevation of thought and expression, and absence of bitter partisanship.

Such contempt of judicial dignity and duty called from the leading men of the State bar an address, in which the meddling of the judges with political contests was properly denounced. The address was signed by more than a hundred of the most prominent lawyers of the State.

On the 8th instant Chief Justice Pearson, in court at Raleigh, ordered that such of the lawyers as signed the address, and were practicing in his court, "be disabled from hereafter appearing as attorneys in the court," unless they appear on a day named and show cause to the contrary.

The Chief Justice was not named in the address, and it was simply an expression of opinion appearing in the newspapers.

Here we have evidence of the sort of judges elected by carpet-baggers and negroes, and the sort of justice meted out by those judges. How admirably the workings of "reconstruction" illustrate the infamy of its purposes.—Chicago Times.

The following communication has been delayed several days. We have some others on the subject of consolidation, which we will publish at as early a day as practicable:

For the Sentinel.

RAILROAD CONSOLIDATION.

EDITOR SENTINEL.—It is generally known to your numerous readers that at the last session of the Legislature, an act was passed authorizing the consolidation of the Atlantic and North Carolina Railroad, with the North Carolina Railroad. This measure was not a part of the "Omnibus Railroad bill," but was a separate and independent measure, commending itself by its own intrinsic merits. It was supported in the Legislature by many members who opposed all other Railroad schemes. Neither was it a party measure, or a sectional issue, but was the result of the united opinion of all sections and all parties. Now why was this done? In the first place, we found the State owning $3,000,000 of stock in one of these Roads, and $1,500,000 in the other; and that this stock was paying no dividends to the State; while the people were sorely pressed for the taxes to pay the interest on the public debt, a large portion of which was incurred in the construction of these two Roads. We found that the private Stockholders received no dividends, and that the stock in these Roads was being thrown on the market for a mere pittance. And in the second place, we saw huge efforts in the West, to turn the trade into South Carolina; and in the East, we saw efforts on a still more gigantic scale to carry all the trade to the State of Virginia; thereby enriching the merchants, and building up the cities and ports of other States, while our own merchants become poor and bankrupt, our towns and cities mouldering into dilapidation and ruins; and our splendid harbors and inlets were being neglected; and the whole State suffering from this wholesale discrimination in favor of other States.

It was believed that such a great number of Corporations in the State resulted in waste, extravagance, and feuds; and that the interest of the State, as well as the private Stockholders would be best promoted by a consolidation of the two Roads. We then would have the whole business controlled by one Company, whose concentrated efforts and energies would tend greatly to build up what has aptly been called "poor old bleeding North Carolina." We had the example of the great States of New York, Pennsylvania, Illinois, and in fact, all the States, having a well developed system of Railroads. The true policy has been, to consolidate, and have as few Corporations as possible; and to concentrate all the unity, effort, and zeal necessary, into one single Company or Corporation.

The Legislature of North Carolina felt that this was the turning crisis in the history of the State: that all her material prosperity depended upon a well regulated system of Railroads; and they felt the necessity of defeating the many well concocted machinations known to exist, by which ruinous discriminations were being made against our own State.

Now is the death struggle of the "Old North State." Who will come to the rescue of this once noble and glorious old State? Is she not entitled to the united efforts of her people. Was she not one of the "immortal thirteen" which stood fast to the struggle in which life, liberty, and all, were involved? Has she no harbors and ports worthy of the attention of her citizens? Is it not desirable that the "waste places" shall be built up throughout our State?—Who will become recreant in this hour of peril? This act of Consolidation was intended as instruction to the State proxy in casting the vote. The Legislature is supposed to represent the interest of the entire State.

Selfish and "soulless corporations" may strive to enrich themselves at the expense of the people; the incumbents in office, of these Railroad Companies, may desire to perpetuate themselves as "dead heads" and "official dignitaries," but it is the duty of the Legislature to subserve the interest of the entire State. Indeed, it might be said that the Atlantic and North Carolina Road and the North Carolina Road is but the same Road; and as intended by those eminent men who lived at the time the Roads were originated.

In regard to time and convenience they have been constructed by separate corporations in name; but the State owning the greater interest, and it being proclaimed as the same great line of Railroad, they are, in fact, but one Road, and should be so considered. The State having $4,500,000 stock in these two Roads should co-operate with the private Stockholders in building, and making profitable, one grand consolidated Railway through the State. Will not the stock in such a Road as this pay?—Suppose it were an original proposition to build a Railroad through the centre of the State from one end to the other; would not capitalists take stock in such a Road? Would it not be much better than to have this great line divided into a half dozen rival and antagonistic Companies? Could we not, in this way, better husband the resources of the entire State? Would not the private Stockholders expect a much greater dividend, and would not the stock command a higher price in market? I am glad to see the interest now being manifested by the people and Stockholders in this magnificent enterprise of consolidation.—Although it seems that President Smith, of the North Carolina Road, is moving "Heaven and earth" to defeat the enterprise. He has issued quite a number of hand bills, circulars, and proclamations, on the subject. In one of his famous proclamations he says that all who may desire to attend the meeting at Newbern must apply to his office for passes, or they will be charged full fare. That is to say, to the Stockholders—you, who built the Road—you, who own the Road, must make personal application to the great mogul of the North Carolina Railroad for a pass in order to attend to the business of the Road.

This too, be it remembered was after the Board of Directors of the North Carolina Road had passed a solemn resolution and entered it of record "that the Stockholders of this Road be passed free, to and from said meeting," and the President was required by the same resolution to have tickets prepared and make "publication of the same." Instead of obeying this order of the Board of Directors, he writes a letter to the Standard, without date, in which he styles the "joint meeting" of the Stockholders as contemplated by the resolution as a mere meeting advertised for certain improper purposes; and requires Stockholders to apply at his office. Was this a compliance with the order of the Board of Directors? Was this a "preparation of tickets" and "making publication" of the same? Surely not. It was a patent violation of the order, and gross violation of the rights of the Stockholders. Will the Board submit to such conduct by the appointed President of the Company?

Will the Stockholders in the North Carolina Railroad submit to have their rights thus ignored and insulted by W. A. Smith, who sets himself up as Supreme Dictator of this Road? The result was that honest Stockholders, holding $4,000 and $10,000 stock in the Road, applied to the Depot Agents along the line, and they were told that a special order was issued by W. A. Smith, that no tickets should issue except on application to him. Who does not know that this was intended to keep the stockholders away from the Newbern meeting.

The "whereas" of the resolution passed by the Board recites:

WHEREAS, It is in contemplation, at an early day, to hold a joint meeting of the Stockholders of the Atlantic & North Carolina Railroad, and North Carolina Railroad, to confer upon the subject of consolidating the two Roads, Therefore,

Resolved, That the Stockholders of this Road be passed free, to and from said meeting, over the North Carolina Railroad, and that the President have Stockholder's tickets prepared for that purpose, and publication made of same.

F. A. STAGG,
Secretay.

This order was made by the Board as early as the 18th day of Dec., 1868; showing that the Company intended to give ample time for all the stockholders to have a chance to attend the meeting at Newbern for the purpose of consultation. Did not W. A. Smith know that this meeting was intended as a "joint meeting" of the Stockholders of both Roads? Does he not know that they were all invited; and that the attendance of all was desired? What objection had he to the Stockholders having a chance to compare views?

Why should W. A. Smith defy the action of the Legislature, and of the Board of Directors on his own Road? Why allow him to obstruct a full and fair comparison of views on this great question? If the many wise and profound facts enunciated in his windy proclamation be true, he need not fear the test of investigation. But lo, and behold! the Newbern meeting had scarcely adjourned before another beautiful and charming little proclamation appears in the public prints: "Excursion to Norfolk!"—"Excursion to Norfolk!"—"$8 00 for the Round Trip!" Now this seems all very nice indeed. Only $8.00 to Norfolk and return! But is it not even better than that? Look here:—

"NORTH CAROLINA RAILROAD.
EXCURSION TICKET.
COMPLIMENTARY.
Pass to Norfolk and return.
Leave Charlotte at 11 o'clock, A. M., 15th June.
Return 19th. Good for five days.
W. A. SMITH, President."

This is an exact copy of the complimentary passes being sent in all directions by W. A. Smith. It might be asked when he became clothed with the power to issue passes to Norfolk and return. Well may we exclaim—

"Great God!—on what meat
Doth this our Cæsar feed,
That he has grown so great?"

Are the Railroad lines from Charlotte to Norfolk already consolidated? And has W. A. Smith the control of this great consolidated line? Where is Dr. Hawkins?—It has been said that he runs the North Carolina Road; but this must be a mistake, for W. A. Smith seems to run quite to Norfolk and return, and, of course, runs over Hawkins. Indeed, he is not sparing with these tickets, for one individual is known to have received five or six free passes.

But, be it remembered he sends them to those parties whom he considers pliant co-operators in the work of destroying North Carolina and building up the State of Virginia. A few days ago when the Stockholders wished to go to Newbern to consult on the best mode of developing the great State of North Carolina, they must apply to W. A. Smith for a pass; but now the same individual can send on his own responsibility passes to an indefinite extent—(they need not apply, he sends them.)

Let me ask if the freight of the North Carolina Road can do so much in the building up of Norfolk, could it not do the same in building up a North Carolina sea port? I say to the people of North Carolina that here is necessary of the deepest dye. Here is a man lending himself to combinations and influences which tend directly to retard the progress of the State on the road to prosperity. So strict was the sentiment in the Legislature on this subject that they repeatedly refused to allow any Company to adopt a guage other than the North Carolina guage. This was to make our railroads tend to the building and fostering the interest of our own own State rather than others. But W. A. Smith intends the State of North Carolina shall run the risk of positive bankruptcy and disgrace if necessary to carry out his schemes of consolidation in the direction of Norfolk, Va.

We wish to see trade go wherever there is an outlet. We wish the greatest amount of competition, but why discriminate against our own State? Why unnecessarily break down the only hope North Carolina has in rising to position and prosperity in the Union? Why shall North Carolina longer be considered "a strip of land between two States?" Is it because of the giant power of W. A. Smith? Let us hope for better things.

The Age of Progress.

We publish to-day, the first scheme in the sale of Real and Personal Estate of a Company chartered by the last Legislature, with a capital of one hundred and thirty thousand dollars, and with power to increase that amount to five hundred thousand dollars. An examination of the charter satisfies us that the Company is pursuing a legitimate business; they are empowered to "dispose of Real and Personal Estate in any mode or form they may deem best," and "all laws, or clauses of laws, coming in conflict with said charter are hereby repealed." This is plain and unmistakable English and we have no doubt the transactions of the Company will prove beneficial to the property holders of North Carolina. For example: Mr. A. owns a piece of real estate which he wishes to dispose of. He throws it upon the market, and fails to get a bid that would warrant him in making a deed. He then places it in the hands of the North Carolina Real and Personal Estate Agency, at a fair valuation, and the property is sold by chance—the owner gets his price—the Company a fair and reasonable compensation for selling—and some poor man, *

THE SENTINEL.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

TUESDAY, JUNE 22, 1869.

☞ Consult the column of New Advertisements to-day for the following:

Opening of the next session of Hughes' Academy, near Hillsboro'.

Governor's proclamation for election of Senator for Wake and Franklin.

A variety of good things, and indispensables, in the grocery line, by Douglas Bell.

Periodical Report of the State National Bank of Raleigh, N. C.

The Ladies will be interested by the announcement of several new and beautiful articles in their line by Primrose, Petty and Newsum.

A House-keeper wanted—good chance for some body.

Ten dollars reward for a run-a-way: A. Taylor, Ransom's Bridge.

THE Editor is off to Rockingham Court—don't know what day he will be back.

THERE will be an excursion of the Baptist Sunday School, of this city, to Ridgeway on Saturday next. A gay old time is anticipated for the young folks; and old ones too, as to that matter.

THE temperature of the weather yesterday ran the mercury up to 94 in the shade.

THE remains of a United States soldier, who died in Goldsboro' on Sunday, were brought up by the train yesterday afternoon and interred with military honors, in the Union cemetery. We did not learn his name.

WE call special attention to the advertisement of Mr. A. Myers, of Norfolk, in this issue. Mr. Myers is too well known to the people of North Carolina, to require a puff at our hands.

Tickets for the Sunday School Concert at Tucker Hall, on Thursday night, are to be had at the Book Store of Mr. Alfred Williams, price 25 cents.

PEACOCKISH.—We noticed the Captain of "our beloved's" specials, last evening, dressed out, cap-a-pie, in United States' uniform, and looking deliciously military. We wonder how he would appear thus sparseled, and on the streets, in day time.

WITH THE greatest imaginable delicacy we take the liberty of hinting to certain house holders in certain localities, that the unpleasant odor which at present impregnates the atmosphere, might be removed by some attention being paid to their back lots.

PERSONAL.—We had a call at our sanctum this morning from Mr. McSwaine, of the Fayetteville Eagle. He is not looking quite so fleshy as when we last saw him, but looks tolerably well, nevertheless.

We notice among gentlemen of the Bar, from a distance, recently arrived in the City, R. Y. McAden, Esq., of Charlotte, Col. Walter Clarke, of Halifax and Gen. Alfred Dockery, of Richmond.

PERIODICALS.—That old established public favorite, Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine, for June, is on our table, presenting its usual attractive table of contents.

THE LAND WE LOVE,—the new Eclectic Magazine—now published in Baltimore, is out for July. The established reputation of this excellent Magazine; its chaste literature, and thorough devotion to Southern interests, tastes and feelings, must recommend it to the reading public in this and other Southern States.

DOGS.—We, with due deference to our dignified and august "City Daddies," call to their grave attention the fact that nine out of every ten of the canine pests that at present infest the City are unlicensed. We hope that the owners of these creatures will be made to pay the tax, and also, as a precaution against hydrophobia, be required to muzzle them.

ON THE recent excursion to Norfolk, while steaming out of the harbor, a rather verdant specimen of humanity, hailing from this ilk, spied a light-house. After viewing it for awhile with great curiosity, exclaimed, with considerable emphasis, "What a h—ll of a grist mill."

THE opinion of Chief Justice Chase in the case of U. S. vs. John T. Dewees, is crowded out to-day—will appear to morrow.

SUPREME COURT.—Monday, June 21st.—Court met pursuant to adjournment. All the Justices present.

The oath of office of Attorney General of the State was administered by the Chief Justice to Mr. L. P. Olds.

SUPREME COURT—TUESDAY June 22.—Court met at usual hour, all the Judges present:

CAUSES DISPOSED OF.

Deburle vs. Scott, and Scott vs. Deburle, Craven county. Put off.

Cox vs. Everritt, Wayne. Decree by consent. Put off.

CASES ARGUED.

Lee vs. Street, Craven. Haughton, for Defendant. No counsel for Plaintiff.

City of Newbern vs. Jones. Green for Plaintiff. Seymour for Defendant.

U. S. CIRCUIT COURT, Tuesday, June 22.—Court met pursuant to adjournment, Hon. G. W. Brooks presiding.

U. S. vs. David H. Graves, indictment il legal distilling. District Attorney for the government, J. W. Sharpe, for Defendant. Verdict not guilty.

The morning was consumed in calling the civil docket. On to-morrow the civil docket will be called peremptorily.

HUGE POTATOES.—We were shown this morning a sample of Irish potatoes, raised by William Gregg, Esq., of Seabrook's Island, below Charleston, S. C., and said to be a fair sample of a crop of six hundred and fifty bushels, which are certainly the finest specimens we have seen for many a day. They are of the kidney and pink-eye species, smooth and firm, and said to be of excellent flavor. In regard to the latter quality, we will be better prepared to report after dinner.

THE Bricklayers are busy relaying the pavement in many places on Fayetteville and Hargett Streets.

When one has captured it walk leisurely towards him, receive it with a graceful acknowledgement, and place it on your head; he will invariably act as if you had done him a favor. Try it.

A Waterbury "infant" named Freddy went to his mother one evening and inquired: "Mother, what is a gone sucker?" His mother said he mustn't ask such questions, but Freddy persisted, and was finally sent to bed, to say his prayers by himself, instead of on his mother's lap as usual. So Freddy prayed—"God bless papa and mamma and baby, but as for me, I'se been a bad boy, and I guess I'm a 'gone sucker?"

"My dear child," said a French lady, the other day, to her little four year old boy, "as you have behaved so well lately, I will soon give you a little brother, or sister."—"Oh, that will be so nice," exclaimed the boy; "but tell me, mamma, does papa know of it already?"

A bright faced little boy in West Liberty, Ohio, was asked at Sunday school the other day who wrote the New Testament. He promptly responded in a clear voice as one who knew whereof he affirmed "Don Piatt."

A German baker in Philadelphia found himself under the necessity of chastising his son for pilfering. The boy being rather strong was able to resist successfully.—Thereupon the parent hired an assistant and administered the flaggellation with a hoop pole. When the boy cried for quarter, the philosophic baker granted it, saying, "I yonst don't lick you no more for shtealin' mine money, but I geefs dis man half a dollar to bolt you down, und now I geefs you dat much worth more."

The other day a Georgia negro went to the gallows with the following among his dying thoughts:

"If dis nigger had nebber been born, by jing,
He wouldn't a had on the gallows to swing."

An Englishman was telling the late Col. Isaac O. Barnes, of Massachusetts, of the great rate the cars run in England. "Why, Colonel, in my country they go 75 miles an hour." "They do!" says the Colonel; "they couldn't run long at that rate, or they'd run off the d—d little island."

Thackeray's first novel was published in Fraser in 1839, called "Catherine, a Story, by Ikey Solomons," and never re published.

NIGHT.

The day draws to a close;
The sun slow sinks to rest,
And paints, with streaks of red and gold,
The blue sky in the West.

The stars peep shyly forth,
And deck the ether blue,
And light the dark and silent earth
With rays of golden hue.

The moon rolls grandly up
To her bright home on high—
The queen of heaven, the brightest one
Of all the starlit sky.

My thoughts go far beyond
These beauties of the night,
And think of Him who made them,
The source of all delight.

The night grows bright with glory,
My thoughts are wondrous fair—
No darkness can surround us
If our thoughts are only there.

LIFE INSURANCE.

NATIONAL

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,
OF THE
UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,
WASHINGTON, D. C.

Chartered by Special Act of Congress, Approved July 25th, 1868.

CASH CAPITAL,

$1,000,000,

PAID IN FULL.

It is no longer a question with any man, who tenderly loves his wife and children, who considers how helpless would be their condition in case of his death, as to the duty of taking out a LIFE POLICY, but as to which Company he shall pay his money.

If he reflects a moment he will conclude to patronize the Company which shows the greatest degree of vitality, which extends its business over the largest area, which is a Home Company in every locality; which furnishes insurance at the least cost; which issues no policies that are forfeitable should he be unable next year, or any subsequent year to pay his renewal; and which is undoubtedly able to meet ALL ITS PROMISES.

With these feelings and views, he looks over the newspapers and, by the time he gets through reading the advertisements of Mutual or Mixed Companies, he finds his mind so muddled that he is at a loss where to go or what to do. He can not comprehend one-half that is written, and concludes that none but ACTUARIES, who are familiar with the principles upon which Life Insurance is based can comprehend or explain anything about dividends and his liability for notes given in part payment of premiums. In his dilemma, he goes into the plan adopted by the

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,
U. S. A.,

and finds just what he wants:

An ALL CASH PLAN, reduced to the LOWEST MINIMUM Rate, like any commodity in Market, so much Insurance for so much Money. No notes to give; no interest to pay; no anxiety about Assessments; no apprehension of his Policy being forfeited next year if he does not pay his annual Renewal; and the RATES so much LOWER than other Companies, that he realizes a larger Dividend, IN ADVANCE, than other Companies can pay him in the future.

He finds that, instead of this UNCERTAIN PROMISE, and present high rate, that the presents a certain and definite sum for a much lower rate, and puts up its paid up Capital of

NATIONAL

as a guarantee fund, that its contracts will be fulfilled, and, like thousands of others, cheerfully calls on their Agent to make his application for a Policy. Hence the unprecedented and most wonderful success of the NATIONAL as contrasted with the older and Mutual Companies.

The Company issued its first policy on the 1st of August, 1868, and up to March 1st, 1869, it had issued 3,582 policies.

Amount insured,	$10,005,550.00
Total Premiums,	350,117.03

The whole number issued by the Connecticut Mutual in the first year of its existence was 891

By the Mutual Benefit of New Jersey,	693
" New England Mutual,	545
" Phœnix Mutual,	335
" Massachusetts Mutual,	312
" Equitable of New York,	277

The Mutual Life, of New York, in the first year of its existence, only issued 470 policies.

In its 10th year,	1,260 "
And in its 20th year,	2,842 "

this latter being 600 less than was issued by the NATIONAL in its first seven months.

PUBLISHED AT THE CAPITAL OF THE STATE.
Daily, Semi-Weekly and Weekly.

NEW ARRANGEMENT.

The RALEIGH SENTINEL having passed under the Editorial management of the undersigned, it will, from the present date, be conducted by him.

It will be the zealous and fearless advocate of the CONSTITUTION of the United States, seeking to bring the people back to their ancient reverence for that immortal instrument, and to restore the policy of the country to that honored standard, as the only guarantee of National prosperity.

It will do justice to the men and measures of the present day, whenever they may merit it, but it will unsparingly lash and denounce all who set themselves up in opposition to the Federal Constitution, and hold up to the public indignation corruption and imbecility in high places.

It will ardently seek the promotion of the best interests of North Carolina,—moral, educational, material and political.

THE LATEST NEWS

From every quarter, both by mail and telegraph will be carefully collated and presented.

Full and correct market and financial reports will be given.

And, in one word, no effort will be spared to make the SENTINEL, in all respects, a reliable

NEW METHOD OF WASHING CLOTHES
WITHOUT LABOR.
THE AUTOMATIC
CLOTHES WASHER AND BOILER.

THIS BOILER IS MOST EFFECTUAL, reliable and universally recommended. It can be used on any Stove or Range, in any boiler, and the Low Price of the article places it within the reach of every family.

This Boiler operates upon purely philosophical principles, is self-acting, and dispenses with labor and the wear of the clothes.

The hot suds and steam, by the action of heat are driven up through tubes, poured upon the clothes, and forced through the fabric with astonishing rapidity, cleansing all articles, from the finest laces to the best-soiled. For flannels it is invaluable, as it does not full them as in the old process of rubbing and pressing.

The time required for cleansing a boiler full of clothes is twenty to thirty minutes, and nearly three hundred gallons of boiling suds are forced through the fabric, thoroughly removing and exhausting the air WITHOUT LABOR or friction.—A thorough rinsing finishes the process.

Washing day will no longer be a terror and dread to housewives. The cost of the Boiler will soon be counted in the SAVING OF TIME AND LABOR, and the great saving in the wear of clothes.

The great value of this invention appears so clear, and appeals so directly to common sense, that we have deemed it unnecessary to accompany its introduction with numerous letters of approval, &c.

No invention has met with such ready sale and given such satisfaction. Call at BOOTH & ALEXANDER'S, and see its wonderful operations,—we have the exclusive right to sell and manufacture in the state.
